READ—the following paper:—

Extract, paragraph 4, from a letter from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 6th January 1887, No. 1 (Public—Records).

Para. 4. I request that orders may be issued to ensure that, in future, the published price of each work sent home may be duly advised with the first consignment of copies. In order to recover payment for packing and freight, &c., it has been customary to convert the Indian publishing price in rupees into sterling at two shillings the rupee, but this, of course, can only be done when due advice of such publishing price accompanies each work.
