preventing the enquiry by the Police, and was finally dismissed.

2. The Instrument was one given for the use of temporary Assistant P. Subramania Iyer, but at the time of the theft it was in the immediate charge of the Amicut Superintendent, to whom it had been lent under the Executive Engineer's instructions in order that he might take certain levels required.

3. On the day of the theft of the Instrument, the Amicut Superintendent it would appear took a few lines of levels and left the instrument in the store shed, which was in charge of temporary storekeeper, Chinniah Naidoo (since dismissed) whose pay was charged to works. This storekeeper also kept the accounts of daily receipts and issues of materials. He locked the store shed and the linen shed and slept outside in the verandah of the Bungalow. A tholly also slept in the same verandah and also the Amicut Head Lascar who came late at night.

4. Early next morning it was found that the two sheds were broken

broken open, that the levelling Instrument was missing and that the lock of the Instrument box had been tampered with.

5. As stated above the matter was reported to the Police, and from a letter received by the Executive Engineer from the Superintendent of Police dated 24th February 1887 No 120 it does not appear that there is any likelihood of the Instrument being recovered.

6. In reply to my enquiry why temporary Assistant Subramania Iyer, who was the subordinate for whose use the Instrument had been given should not be held responsible for its loss under the Chief Engineer's Memorandum No 789 dated 13th April 1885, the Executive Engineer states that as all reasonable precautions had been taken for the security of the Instrument, the subordinate in whose use it was can hardly be held responsible for its safety.

Sir,
 In reply to your letter No. 8052 dated 22. January 1897, forwarding copy of letter of the Superintending Engineer 5th Circle, I have the honor to inform you that I have had further enquiries made regarding the brass instrument stolen from the Amrit Chest.

A report was spread abroad that a gate-keeper in the South Indian Railway had been receiving certain stolen articles particularly in a Dacoity Case, but there was nothing authentic in it though, before he could be arrested, he absconded and has not been since heard of.

Whether he did receive the

Do Chief Engineer for Irrign. No. 78 dated 20th. March 1885.

The foregoing papers are replies to Circular No. 1608 C dated 30th. September 1884, requesting Superintending Engineers to report the immediate additional cost which would be involved by the adoption of a suggestion made by Col. Beatty R.E., that, in view to greater care being exercised in the use of scientific instruments, every subordinate, on first joining a division, should be intrusted with a prismatic compass and levelling instrument, for the condition of which the holder would be held personally responsible.

2. It now appears that there are a sufficient number of instruments in the various divisions, or in stock, to carry out the proposal without appreciable extra outlay; so that the question of cost need not be taken into consideration.
