Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to issue orders for the white washing of this building, which is in a fearfully dirty condition. I am given to understand that sanction for the same has been applied for, and request that instructions for doing the work as early as possible may be given. I have been here very nearly a month and am obliged to live on the premises which do not permit of me settling down owing to the extremely dirty condition of the building.
