OFFICE NOTE No. 1270.

To W.
G.O. No. 846 W. dated 14th. March 1888.

If Government see no objection I would suggest that the duty of making the necessary endorsement on service books received from Government in the Pension Department be left to the Examiner.

2. One object of the endorsements is to prevent any possibility of a claim to pension for service already pensioned; and as the Examiner will be responsible for the verification of any future service for pension it will be better that he should himself be responsible for the necessary entries in the service books.

To

Please see G.O. Pension Department No. 501 dated 31st. May 1881 regarding endorsements to be made in the service books of the retired men on re-employment.

2. Endorsements therein prescribed have hitherto been made by the heads of offices (Executive Engineers) on receipt of the service books; but I am of opinion that the Executive Engineers are not the "heads of departments" contemplated by the G.O.

3. Orders are therefore now solicited as to who should make the endorsement, which should it is thought be made in some central office. If the entries are to be made in the divisions there is no check over them.

4. The rule has not been codified.

Read again—

Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 5th April 1881, No. 374.

Read also the following paper:—

From D. C. GORDON, Esq., in charge Examiner of Public Works Accounts Office, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Madras, 20th April 1881, No. 63-X.

In acknowledging the receipt of the Proceedings of Government in the Pension Department, No. 374, dated 5th instant, returning the service books of Messrs. W. and R. Rozario, late clerks on the establishment of this office, I have the honor to suggest, for the consideration of Government, whether, prior to return, some endorsement should not be written on the page in which the last entry appears, showing that the applicants have received a pension and gratuity for their services under Government up to and for such a date, endorsements being signed by the Secretary or Under Secretary to Government in the Pension Department.

2. The service books of Messrs. W. and R. Rozario have been retained in this office pending result of this reference, to which an early reply is solicited.

ORDER THEREON, 31st May 1881, No. 501.

The Government consider it preferable that the endorsement referred to should be made by Heads of Departments to whom the service books are returned.
