GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, 15th December 1887, No. 87 (Public—Records).

In December 1861 Sir Charles Wood called the attention of the Government of India to the inconveniences attending the practice of transmitting official documents to individuals or public bodies in this country before they were sent to this office, and directed that in any cases where it might be desired by Government to forward them, the transmission should be made through this office.

2. It would appear that this order is now frequently disregarded, and that official reports do not reach this office so expeditiously as they might.

3. I shall be glad if your Excellency will issue such orders as may seem necessary to ensure the more expeditious transmission home of official reports, and a better observance of the prohibition against their being sent to individuals or public bodies in this country except through the intervention of this office.
