READ the following paper

From the District Judge, Calicut, dated 14th March 1888 No. 288 (through the High Court)

801 Way 10/3/88

In reply to G.O. No. 576 of the 6th March 1888, I have the honor to state that on reconsideration, I am of opinion that a uniform rate of Rs 2 should be charged on all the rooms in the upper as well as in the lower story. I think that it is probable that when the building is completed 20 rooms upstairs will be taken up in addition to those now occupied on the ground floor

Order, 31st March 1858, No. 349

Transferred to the Public Works Department with an intimation that the Government in the judicial Department approve of the rate of rent now proposed by the Acting District Judge.
