Sir,

Enclosure. one.

With reference to G.O. No. 1092 W dated 11th April 1888, I have the honor to enclose a statement shewing the dates of submission of the monthly Accounts of the past official year 1887-88, from which it can be seen that there was only a single instance of delay in their submission and this - accidental.

I have the honor to be

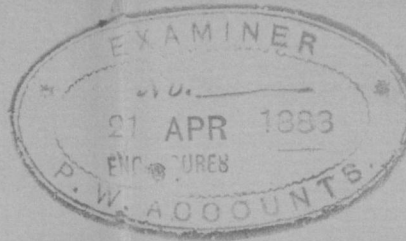

Sir

Your most obedient Servant

J. W. Brassington

In returning herewith the Consulting Architect's letter received with the above office note, I beg to state that in most cases the accounts according to registers maintained in my office were received a day later than the date of despatch according to the Consulting Architect's statement. Probably the accounts were received in the evening too late for any action, in which case this office date is practically more correct than that of the Consulting Architects, as a receipt after office hours cannot
