

EXAMINER
P.W.C. N^o 1385

For orders

The paper has been communicated by the Government of India to the Madras Govt for "information and guidance". This may have been premature, but an order of the Govt. of India in its Military Dept is as valid ^{as} one in its P.W. Department.

There can, however, be no harm in deferring action as suggested by the Examiner.

I see the mem^m in the Mil^y Dept^t was addressed to the P.W. Dept^t. C is probably right in considering we should await the action of the P.W.D.

Madras, 11 February 1888.

To W.

G.O. No. 3316 W. dated 5th. December 1887.

The memorandum from the Government of India in the Military Department communicated in G.O.
quoted above, suggests the alteration of an existing rule, and although that memorandum has been sent to the Madras Government for information and guidance, there is nothing, as far as this office is aware, to show that the Government of India in the P.W. Department has as yet accepted the suggestion and modified its order. Would it not therefore be premature to modify the rule in the Madras Code?
