As you wished to know whether any P.W. officers in other parts of India drew special pay, I telegraphed to India, Bombay & Bengal.

From the replies you will see that in the Dept of India Secretariat a few officers draw special pay -

It is a recognized principle that head quarters appointments should be better paid than ordinary ones - but in the Madras & in the Under Secretaries here for some years past merely drawn the pay of their grade plus Presidencies allowance. If the latter is taken away the Under Secretaries are in a worse position than their colleagues in other parts of India, and also as regards the Under Secretaries of other

The reply from the India P. W. Secretariat has not yet come in -

The two replies received, with go. no 2117 w 88-9-80, will perhaps enable you to refer to this question.
