J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., C.S.I.

Read—the following letter from the Collector of Ganjam, dated 25th January 1888, No. 306:—

I have the honor to state that I have granted three months' privilege leave to P. Murtiraz Pantulu, Deputy Tahsildar, Tekkali, and to submit, for the approval and sanction of Board and Government, my nomination of Samineni Venkatachallam Mudaliar Naidu (Permanent Second Clerk, Principal Assistant Collector's office), Sheristadar, Parlákimedi estate, to act as Deputy Tahsildar, Tekkali, during the absence of Murtiraz Pantulu on leave.

2. Resolution—dated 13th March 1888, No. 528.

The nomination of Balijapalli Lakshmikantam Pantulu as Acting Sheristadar of the Parlákimedi estate is approved and the sanction of Government will be solicited for the temporary loan of his services to the Court of Wards and for the payment of the usual contribution (vide explanation appended to paragraph 1 under section 9, clause (b) of the Civil Pension Code). The net pay of the Sheristadar is Rs. 60, and the pensionary contribution Rs. 10 will be paid by the estate.

2. The Court beg to submit that the authority delegated to the Board in G.O., dated 19th October 1886, No. 906, does not cover the present case. In that order the Government were pleased to delegate their powers under section 8 of the Civil Pension Code to the extent specified in the note to clause 2 of that section, as the note then stood, i.e., in the case of transfers for special temporary duty not lasting more than six months. The duty in the present case not being "special" the transfer of services cannot be sanctioned by the Board. By the order of the Government of India in the Finance Department, dated 5th May 1887, No. 2368, Local Governments have been authorized to delegate their powers in respect, not only of special temporary duty, but also of all temporary duty not lasting more than six months, and the Court beg to suggest that if Government see no objection these powers may now be delegated to the Board in respect of officers subordinate to the Board.
