W.

Under Code para 1485, the cost of imported English stores has, interalia, to be omitted from the outlay on works and repairs in calculating the percentage charges (for "Establishment" and "Tools and Plant") to be credited to provincial, for works carried out for other funds; and it has hitherto been the practice to eliminate such charges, only when the stores were issued to works.

2. As it however may often be difficult to trace the issue of such stores to works, and, as an instance has occurred in which the issue was altogether lost sight of and the deduction consequently not made, the Accountant General P. W. D. has required all such charges to be in future eliminated at the time of
