READ—the following letter from G. H. D. WALKER, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of the Punjab, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 4th June 1888, No. 1310 G.:—

In reply to your No. 2324, dated 30th April 1888, I am directed to say that it cannot be stated at present when the new edition of Moore's Family Medicine is likely to be ready.

2. It was at first expected that the Manual would have been ready for distribution before June next; but from unforeseen circumstances that have since arisen, further delay in its publication is now inevitable.
