nothing is said to be re=quired to buildings 74678.

These are new buildings, built in 1882, but the Site being made earth thrown up during the famine and not even now properly consolidated the ground has sunk, and consequently the founda= =tions of some of these build= =ings have sunk, resulting in cracks in the buildings. Pro= =vision is made in the Estate =ment for the repair of these buildings and also of certain other buildings shown in the Director General's list, as in good order, but for which Repairs have been found to be necessary.
