MILITARY DEPARTMENT,

JUNE 1888, No.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Unattached List.

Read the following papers:—

No. . Office Note from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts; dated 3rd
February 1888, No. 1030.

The instructions of the Secretary of State communicated with G.O.,
No. 1837-W, dated 8th July 1887, prescribing certain documents to be sent home with warrant officers and soldiers of the Unattached List, were embodied in the Madras Code as a note to para. 635 (see Standing Order No. 177 of 25th August 1887); but with reference to the explanation given in letter No. 1998-A of 20th
December 1887 from the Government of India to the Director-General of Ordnance in India communicated with G.O., No. 227-W, dated 20th January 1888, it seems doubtful whether these instructions apply to warrant officers and soldiers of the Unattached List employed in the Public Works Department, as under Code Paras. 713 (para. 2 of declaration) and 734, condition XIII, their pensions are evidently settled by the Indian Government.

2. If the orders are not applicable, Standing Order No. 177 will have to be cancelled, but before this is done it will perhaps be advisable to refer the question to the Government of India, so that all doubt in the matter may be removed.

(Signed) C. H. P. CHRISTIE, Major, R.E.,
Examiner of Public Works Accounts.

No. 539-C.

Referred to the Military Department, with advertence to the undermentioned
Proceedings—

No. 3891, dated 2nd July 1887, and
No. 229, dated 12th January 1888.

(By Order.)

No. . To the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department;

Unattached List.

In reply to your communication No. 1160, dated the 18th February 1888, I am directed to say that, under Article 1945, India Army Regulations, Vol. I, soldiers of the British Service on the Unattached List are pensioned under the War Office rules, and that on promotion to departmental warrant rank they are pensioned under the rules laid down by the Government of India.
