READ—the following paper:—

Despatch from the Right Honorable Lord CROSS, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 7th June 1888, No. 3, Public (Educational).

With reference to your letter No. 1, dated the 24th of January last, I have to inform your Excellency in Council that I have appointed to the fourth class of the Madras Graded Educational Service Mr. Alfred Chatterton, B.Sc., of the University of London, and Mr. Edgar William Middlemast, B.A., of St. John's College, Cambridge, who graduated as tenth Wrangler in 1886.

2. Although Mr. Chatterton is senior to Mr. Middlemast on appointment, he has no "priority of right to promotion" as indicated in the letter from the Director of Public Instruction, No. 9120, dated the 16th of December last. Promotion is a matter entirely in the hands of the local Government, and these officers will be subject to the general rule on the subject.

3. I transmit the agreements made with Messrs. Chatterton and Middlemast. The former gentleman proceeds to Madras

Dated 3rd and 8th May 1888.

via Bombay, by the Peninsular and Oriental Steamer Carthage which leaves

London on the 28th instant, and the latter gentleman has been allowed to defer his departure until the sailing of the first steamer in the month of August next.

ENCLOSURES.

AGREEMENT made the third day of May 1888 between ALFRED CHATTERTON of No. 44, Rye Hill Park, Peckham Rye, of the first part, and the Secretary of State for India in Council of the second part.

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for India in Council has engaged the party of the first part to serve Her Majesty in the East Indies as an officer of the fourth class of the Madras Graded Educational Service.

NOW THESE PRESENTS WITNESS, and the said parties hereto respectively agree as follows:—

1. That the party of the first part will, on being provided with a first-class passage to Madras, proceed thither within such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of State for India in Council.
2. That the party of the first part will, on arrival at Madras, submit himself to the orders of the Government of Madras and of the officers and authorities under whom he may be from time to time placed by the said Government; and that he will at all times obey the rules prescribed for the time being for the regulation of the branch of the public service to which he may belong.

3. That the party of the first part will devote his whole time to the duties of the service, and will not engage directly or indirectly in any trade, business, or occupation on his own account; and that he will not (except in case of accident or sickness certified by competent medical authority) absent himself from his said duties without having first obtained permission from the said Government or its authorised officers.
 4. That the party of the first part will not relinquish the service of Government unless he shall have given the said Government six months' previous notice in writing of his intention to do so; and that if he shall relinquish the said service within a period of five years from the date of his reporting his arrival at Madras, (whether after having given notice or otherwise) he will forthwith, on demand, pay to the Secretary of State for India in Council the sum of fifty pounds (being the cost of his passage to Madras).
 5. That from the date of the party of the first part reporting his arrival at Madras, the Government will pay him, so long as he shall remain in the said service and actually perform his duties, a salary at the rate of five hundred rupees per mensem.
 6. That the party of the first part shall, within two years after his reporting his arrival at Madras, pass such examination as may be prescribed by the said Government in one of the vernacular languages. If he shall fail to pass such examination within such two years the said Government may dispense with his services. Provided always, that if he shall pass such examination as aforesaid his salary, from the date of his passing such examination, shall be increased by annual increments of fifty rupees per mensem until such salary shall attain the rate of seven hundred and fifty rupees per mensem.
 7. That the said Government may at any time dispense with the services of the party of the first part on giving him six months' previous notice, and may at any time discharge him from their service without notice in the event of misconduct on his part or of a breach by him of any of the conditions herein-before specified.
 8. That if the party of the first part be compelled by ill-health (certified to the satisfaction of the said Government) to give up the said service within five years from his reporting his arrival at Madras, or if the said Government dispense with his services within the said period of five years on grounds other than those of misconduct or breach of engagement, the Government will provide him with a passage back to England at the public expense.
 9. That if the party of the first part shall continue to serve Government under these presents for more than five years, his service (commencing from the date of his entering on the performance of his duties as aforesaid) shall count as service towards leave and pension under such rules as regards leave and pension as may for the time being be applicable to his case: Provided always, that in case of any dispute as to the interpretation of any of the said rules, or otherwise relating in any way to them, the decision of the Secretary of State for India in Council shall be conclusive.
 10. That in any payments which may be made in Great Britain (notwithstanding any rule to the contrary) the rate of exchange between England and India annually fixed by the Secretary of State for India in Council in communication with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury shall be observed.
