Establishment.

READ—the following letter from Colonel R. C. B. PEMBERTON, R.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Fort William, 14th December 1887, No. 2471 G.:—

In reply to your letter No. 3146 W., dated 21st November 1887, requesting a reconsideration of the orders of the Government of India conveyed in Public Works Department, No. 1538 G., dated 9th August 1887, that men temporarily sanctioned must be considered as sanctioned for a particular work and that transfers between them and the permanent establishment cannot be permitted, I am directed to state that, after consideration of the question, the Government of India is pleased to relax the rule as regards men on Rs. 250 per mensem and under, sanctioned by the Local Government only.

2. With regard to paragraph 4 of your letter, in which you point out the difficulty of transferring a temporary man sanctioned from one work to another under the present rule, I am to say that any such difficulty can easily be met by cancelling the temporary appointment for the one work and sanctioning it for the other. By adopting this procedure there is less chance of the temporary men being treated as practically a part of the permanent staff, as the necessity for their re-employment would be reconsidered on each occasion on which a man was thus formally transferred.

ORDER—dated 6th January 1888, No. 33 W., Public Works.

Recorded.

2. With reference to the remarks of the Government of India in their paragraph 2 it is observed that the difficulty experienced was not in transferring temporary employes from one particular temporary work to another, but in posting them to permanent divisions to replace members of the permanent establishment detached for duty on special projects or in temporary divisions.

I beg to forward herewith for the approval of Government, a draft standing order based on the orders of the Government of India, communicated with G.O. No. 33 W. dated 6th. January 1888.

2. Opportunity has been taken in this connection to embody in the standing order the rule in the Civil Pension and Pay and Acting Allowance Codes, permitting an officer on the permanent establishment to be deputed on temporary duty, and a temporary man to be appointed to fill his place temporarily.
