SIR,

With reference to Public Works Department Circular No. XV, dated 20th December 1884, I am directed to refer to clauses 176 and 33 of India Army Circulars of October 1887 and February 1888, respectively, regarding the appointment to the School of Military Engineering, Chatham, of officers of the Royal Engineers who elect for continuous service in India, and to say that the effect of these rules, as soon as they begin to operate, will be that the number of Indian officers at Chatham will be so considerable, that all necessity for any special posting of Indian officers to do duty at the depôt will cease. Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has therefore, after communicating with the Secretary of State for War, ordered the cessation of the system of appointing six officers of Royal Engineers on the Indian Establishment to the Chatham Depôt.

2. His Lordship has, however, I am to add, permitted the four officers now at the depôt to complete the periods for which they were originally appointed.
