READ—the following paper:—

From J. W. BRASSINGTON, Esq., Consulting Architect to the Government of Madras, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Chepāk, 14th August 1888, No. 733.

I have the honor to submit, for the approval and sanction of Government and provision of funds, a supplemental estimate for the alterations and improvements to the old Mint buildings to accommodate the Government Press. These additions were found necessary when the goods belonging to the Army Clothing Department were removed. The floors were in very bad order and additional windows required for light with iron wire netting for securing the openings.

2. As the removal of the Press was considered urgent, I have given instructions for the execution of these additions in anticipation of sanction.

ORDER—dated 24th August 1888, No. 2614 W., Public Works.

The estimate, amounting to Rs. 1,262, for further additions and improvements to the old Mint buildings at Madras to fit them for the Government Press is sanctioned as supplemental to the estimate of Rs. 19,471, sanctioned in G.O. No. 1406 W., dated 14th May 1888.

2. As funds are not at present available with the Government, the amount of the supplemental estimate will be provided later in the year, funds to the extent of the original estimate having already been allotted.

3. This sanction has been registered as Provincial No. 73 W. of 1888-89, and classified as Civil Buildings, Original Works.

NOTE OF REMARKS.

The supplemental Estimate under review
amounting to Rs 1262
provides for certain additions found to be the Mint buildings,
after the goods belonging to the Army Clothing Dept. were removed.

It is stated as the work is urgent
the additions are being carried out
in anticipation
of sanction.

The proposed addition
are of a petty nature such as the flooring with old granite slabs, white washing, painting
wire netting, removing wooden bar shutters & replacing them by iron shutters.

The sanction previously accorded in G.O. No. 1406 W of 14th May 1888 was for Rs. 19,471 and if the amount of the present Estimate is added to it will make Rs. 20,733 and the amount proposed
to be expended on
the Old Mint Building
to adapt it for the accommodation
of the Govt. Press.

The estimate now
submitted is in reality a revised estimate and it may be necessary
that it should pass through the same
Channel as the original Est.:-
