memorials having been forwarded to Her Majesty's Secretary of State, His Lordship has replied as follows. - As regards the first prayer of Messrs. Norfor and Grimes, His Lordship observes that, the former having been appointed from the Madras Civil Engineering College, and the latter having joined the Madras Service as an Assistant Overseer, they are both ineligible under the rules for the benefits they pray for, and that as the point has already been adversely decided in a precisely similar case, His Lordship sees no reason for departing from that decision in the present instances.

3. In respect to Mr. Norfor's second prayer, His Lordship has replied that, there is no special ground for departing from the ruling passed on previous cases of
