Cause of Insolvency.

I beg to submit to this Honorable Court that my insolvency is attributable to a series of calamities which befel me since 1880. My own illness previous to this year and subsequent illness of my wife and children put me to great expense on account of medical attendance, medicine and nourishment and various other domestic troubles and I was compelled to borrow to meet these unforeseen demands and not being able to keep up payments my Creditors sued me and threatened to arrest me. In order to avoid this extreme step of being arrested which would have deprived me of my appointment I was compelled to borrow at high interest and satisfy my creditors, and notwithstanding which one of the Creditors unexpectedly attached my salary in 1880, and this was followed by others, thus putting me out entirely. These attachments so crippled me that though I did my best further to economize and curtail my expenses I found it utterly impossible with the moiety of salary to make both ends meet and I was reluctantly compelled to borrow to meet the cost of the bare necessaries of life. These creditors who gave me an assurance that they would bear with me in my troubles on my failing to pay either interest or instalment sued and obtained decrees and to avoid being arrested I had to renew the bonds for double the amounts adding consideration money to induce them to attach my salary and thus allowing me free to attend to my work. Thus Creditor after Creditor worried me and now finding that it is simply plunging me deeper into debt, and being utterly unable to exist on the moiety of my salary (Rs 60 per mensem) it is with feelings of the greatest sorrow and humiliation I approach Your Lordship and in doing so to solicit upon a merciful consideration of my singularly unfortunate case and of the further redeeming feature in it, namely, that I have during the past seven years paid up by attachments against my salary at the rate of Rs 50 to 60 per mensem a large amount of my debts as will be observed from an extract from the Small Cause Court appended to this Schedule Your Lordship will be pleased to grant me the relief sought for under the Act. I beg further to explain to the Honorable Court that before taking this painful step I proposed a Trust Deed but some of the creditors were averse and the matter had to be dropped. A glance at the Appendix will show to your Lordship that almost all of the creditors have received nearly the full amounts for which they have attached my salary while others have received more than half and the sums thus recovered by them are actually far above what they have advanced to me. Further those creditors who have not attached my salary have one and all been receiving interest month by month up to date and they have also in a manner recovered the sums advanced in the shape of interest. I further beg to submit that I am willing to pay a sum of Rs 10 for the benefit of my Creditors if your Lordship shall deem it necessary.
