G.O., dated 3rd October 1888, No. 6671, Military.

From Sir J. A. HANBURY, M.B., K.C.B., Surgeon-General, Her Majesty's Forces, to the Quartermaster-General, dated Ootacamund, 1st September 1888, No. 2349.

With reference to your letter No. 3063 A, dated 23rd August, to the General Officer Commanding Eastern District, which was forwarded to my Secretary, I have the honor to enclose, for your information, a copy of the latter officer's reply.

2. The future quarters selected for my office are close and ill-ventilated and in a bad state of repair and contain no suitable rooms for me or my Secretary, although there is ample accommodation for the establishment and records. I therefore consider it necessary that two separate rooms should be built over the upper storey with bath-rooms attached for myself and my Secretary.

ENCLOSURE.

From Surgeon-Major G. F. BEVAN, Acting Secretary to the Surgeon-General, Her Majesty's Forces, to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, Eastern District, dated Fort St. George, 31st August 1888, No. 2339.

In returning your circular No. 3496, dated 29th instant, with its accompaniments, has the honor to state that he has, in communication with the Deputy Surgeon-General, Her Majesty's Forces, Eastern District, inspected the building, and that it has been mutually arranged to locate the Deputy Surgeon-General's office in No. 3, Captains' quarters, and the Surgeon-General's office in Nos. 4 and 5, Field officers' quarters.

No. 3418 A.

Submitted for the consideration of Government in continuation of this office letter No. 2374 A of 29th June 1888, with a plan showing how it is proposed to divide the buildings between the offices of the Surgeon-General, Her Majesty's Forces, Madras, and Deputy Surgeon-General, Eastern District.
