From Brigadier-General M. PROTHEROE, C.B., C.S.I., Quartermaster-General, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 13th September 1888, No. 3343 A.

With reference to the orders of Government as per margin on the subject of Regimental institutes, I have been desired by the Commander-in-Chief to submit, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council, a schedule giving a short abstract of the proposals and their approximate cost at stations in the Madras Command, which have been approved by His Excellency for the provision of adequate accommodation for such institutes in accordance with the suggestions made in the above orders of Government and in various circulars from the Quartermaster-General in India.

Procs. of Govt., No. 6570, dated 26th Oct. 1887.

2. The proposals in each case have been carefully scrutinised and those now submitted are in Sir Charles Arbuthnot's opinion necessary in order to put regimental institutes in this command, as now proposed to be maintained, on a satisfactory footing in regard to accommodation.

3. It will be observed that, in most instances, the estimated expenditure is for alterations to existing buildings. In the following cases, however, additional erections are required :—

Secunderabad.—As additional accommodation is required in the institutes of the British Cavalry and Royal Artillery, it is proposed here to carry out the suggestions of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India and to construct beer-issue stores separate from, but adjacent to, the refreshment departments, the accommodation thus set free in the main buildings being allotted to the purposes required. In the second British Infantry lines at Secunderabad an addition to the recreation department is required which will involve building, the space at present available being insufficient.

Rangoon.—An estimate, amounting to Rs. 30,904, for a recreation department building for the British Infantry regiment in Rangoon has been submitted to the Government of India and Rs. 20,000 have been provided in the current year's Burma budget estimate for military works for expenditure thereon. The building would have been erected in any case and the proposed outlay cannot be said to be a consequence of the above Government Orders; the amount has, however, been included here to show Government the total sum required to be expended in providing proper accommodation for institutes in this command.

St. Thomas' Mount.—The proposal to erect a new refreshment department for the two batteries at St. Thomas' Mount in lieu of the present building, which is inconveniently situated, and which can be converted into a Battery office and wheeler

2. The proposals in each case have been carefully scrutinised and those now submitted are in Sir Charles Arbuthnot's opinion necessary in order to put regimental institutes in this command, as now proposed to be maintained, on a satisfactory footing in regard to accommodation.

3. It will be observed that, in most instances, the estimated expenditure is for alterations to existing buildings. In the following cases, however, additional erections are required :—

Secunderabad.—As additional accommodation is required in the institutes of the British Cavalry and Royal Artillery, it is proposed here to carry out the suggestions of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India and to construct beer-issue stores separate from, but adjacent to, the refreshment departments, the accommodation thus set free in the main buildings being allotted to the purposes required. St. Thomas' Mount.—The proposal to erect a new refreshment department for the two batteries at St. Thomas' Mount in lieu of the present building, which is inconveniently situated, and which can be converted into a Battery office and wheeler and collar-maker's shop, will enable Government to provide the latter accommodation, which is needed, without incurring additional expenditure on these accounts.

Kamptee.—An addition to the recreation department of the British Infantry battalion is necessary to give it the area required.

Wellington.—The present arrangements both for the convalescent depôt and headquarters and five companies of the British Infantry battalion quartered there are makeshift and unsatisfactory, space being occupied in barracks which would otherwise be available for men. It is therefore proposed to build here two institutes for the depôt and British Infantry battalion of wood and corrugated iron as indicated in circular No. 25, dated 16th December 1887, from the Quartermaster-General in India, regarding the future construction of barracks, &c., at hill stations in India. The approximate cost of such buildings is not accurately known and this estimate is therefore liable to modification hereafter.

4. The Local Governments have been asked, if possible, to make provision for the items contained in the schedule in their estimates for the ensuing official year.

Sir,

With reference to the orders of Government as per margin on the subject of Regimental Institutes, I have been desired by the Commander-in-Chief to submit for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council a schedule giving a short abstract of the proposals and their approximate cost at stations in the Madras Command which have been approved by His Excellency for the provision of adequate accommodation for such Institutes in accordance with the suggestions made in the above orders of Government and in various circulars from the Quarter Master General in India.

2- The proposals in each case have been carefully carefully scrutinized and those now submitted are in Sir Charles Arbuthnot's opinion necessary in order to put Regimental Institutes in this Command, as now proposed to be maintained, on a satisfactory footing in regard to accommodation.

3. It will be observed that in most instances, the estimated expenditure is for alterations to existing buildings. In the following cases, however, additional erections are required.

Secunderabad. An additional accommodation is required in the Institutes of the British Cavalry and Royal Artillery it is proposed here to carry out the suggestions of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, and to construct Beer Issue Stores separate from, but adjacent to the Refreshment Department, the accommodation thus set free in the main buildings being allotted to the purposes required. In the Second British Infantry Lines at Secunderabad an addition to the recreation Department is required which will involve building, the space at present available being insufficient.

Rangoon. An estimate amounting to Rs 30,904 for a recreation Department building for the British Infantry Regiment in Rangoon has been submitted to the Government of India and Rs 20,000 have been provided in the current years Burma Budget Estimate for Military works for expenditure thereon. The building would have been erected in any case and the proposed outlay cannot be said to be a consequence of the above G. Os.; the amount has, however, been included here to show Government the total sum required to be expended in providing proper accommodation for Institutes in this Command.

St Thomas' Mount. The proposal to erect a new Refreshment Department for the two batteries at St Thomas' Mount in lieu of the present building which is inconveniently situated and which can be converted into a Battery Office and Wheeler and Collar Makers Shop with will enable Government to provide the latter accommodation, which is needed, without incurring additional expenditure on these accounts.

Hamptie - An addition to the Recreation Department of the British Infantry Battalion is necessary to give it the area required -

Wellington. The present arrangements both for the Convalescent Depot and Head Quarters and 5 Companies of the British Infantry Battalion quartered there are make shift and unsatisfactory, space being occupied in Barracks which would otherwise be available for men. It is therefore proposed to build here two Institutes for the Depot and British Infantry Battalion, of wood and corrugated iron as indicated in Circular No: 25 dated 16th December 1887 from the Quarter Master General in India regarding the future construction of Barracks &c at Hill Stations in India - The approximate cost of each such buildings is not accurately known and this estimate is therefore liable to modification hereafter.

4. The local Governments have been asked, if possible, to make provision for the items contained in the schedule in their Estimates for the ensuing official Year.
