To

The Superintending Engineer
First Circle.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that 12-native suits of clothes were obtained from the Superin-tendent of Central jail at a cost of Rs. 42-2-0- and supplied to the crew of steamers as uniform 2. The cost was debited by this office to "Boat office" but the Examiner Public Works Accounts states in the objectionable Items Statement for March 1888 that clothing cannot be supplied at the public expense without sanction of Government.
3. I request therefore that you will be good enough to obtain necessary sanction if you agree with me that the cost of uniform for the steamer crew should be
