FOR ORDERS.

As a rule I do not think the Public Works Department should undertake the supervision of outside work without charge and I suggested that 10 per cent should be charged in this instance, but Government may consider that this is an exceptional case. I understand that in other Presidencies similar cases have been so considered.

Sir,

With reference to the establishment of Lady Nurses alluded to in

P. M. G. No. 1658 of 8th March 1888 } P. M. G. as per do— 1937 of 19th — do— } margin, I have been desired by

His Excellency the Commander in Chief to state for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council that it is proposed to build a home for their accommodation in the Hills at Wellington out of funds raised by Lady Roberts by private subscription.

2. A suitable site in Wellington Cantonment at a convenient distance from the Station Hospital has been selected and on completion of the proposed building the lady nurses who may occupy it will be employed, if necessary and in cases when their health

health permits of it in nursing duty at the Hospital.

3. As the provision by private subscription of these "homes in the hills" will frequently save the expense which would otherwise be incurred by in-validing the nurses to England, His Excellency the Commander in Chief trusts that Government will authorize the supervision by the Public Works Department of the erection of the Building without charge.
