For orders whether this sanction should be renewed as a matter of course. It is quite possible that the men are still required, but the Govt. should, apparently, have some assurance from the Supty. Eng. that he has looked into the matter and satisfied himself that the Establishment cannot be dispensed with or reduced.

In the S.E.'s letter 890 G.O. of 5th July 87, he explains the circumstances under which Sanctions have been obtained for these clerks since the Sanction can now be renewed, without reference to S.E., the case being exceptional.
