3. If at any time the Ex. Submarine Mining Officer should require leave for a day or so for the purpose of taking part in mining work, he should apply to the Executive Engineer, Fort William Division, explaining the circumstances under which the leave is required, and the Executive Engineer should then endeavour to comply with his request, sending a copy of his letter direct to the Inspector of Submarine Defences at Poona for information.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

G. E. L. S. SANFORD, Colonel,
Inspector General, Military Works.

CASE No. 1531.

Circular No. 28A.

Military Works Department.

To

THE SUPERINTENDING ENGINEERS,
PRESIDENCY AND OUDH COMMAND,
MILITARY WORKS.

THE INSPECTOR, SUBMARINE DEFENCES.

Simla, 29th October 1888.

SIR,

Under the orders of the Government of India, the Ex. Submarine Mining Officer when stationed at a port, will resume charge of the Submarine Defences in time of war; and to facilitate his keeping up a knowledge of the changes and progress in submarine mining, the following instructions are laid down for information and guidance as regards Calcutta:—

- (i) All papers received in the Office of the Officer in charge of Submarine Defences bearing on submarine mining questions other than those of ordinary routine, are to be passed to the Ex. Submarine Mining Officer for his information and return.
- (ii) When any submarine mining operations of special interest are to be carried out, the Ex. Submarine Mining Officer is to be informed, so that he can arrange if possible to be present.
- (iii) The Ex. Submarine Mining Officer is to have fair access at all times to the submarine mining works and buildings during working hours.
- (iv) Any orders or instructions issued to the Officer in charge of the Submarine Mining by the Ex. Submarine Mining Officer are to be complied with, and a report of the circumstances under which they have been issued is to be made at once to the Inspector of Submarine Defences.

2. It is not considered necessary that any special time should be given to the Ex. Submarine Mining Officer for attending to submarine mining duties, as he can peruse the papers on the subject at his leisure; but it is left to the discretion of the Executive Engineer, Fort William Division, to give him time occasionally in office hours to attend to mining work on his shewing that this is desirable.
