Sir,

In reply to your Memo No 7/6, dated 27th October 1888, I have the honour to inform you that I am not the legal representative of my late brother Mr. C. Sakaram Row. We were denuded brothers.
His legal representative is a minor son aged 14 years now under my protection. My late brother had insured his life for Rs 2000 and had some money in the Commerc Bank at Coimbatore, but until a certificate of heirship is secured, and other legal formalities are gone through neither my nephew nor any one on his behalf can claim the money. He left no cash behind, and his children are now maintained by one.

He has left behind ^{him} 4 orphan children, and in consideration of his long service under govern-ment (from 1862 to 1888), I have the honor to request that you will be pleased to recom-mend to government that the amount due to Govt by my late brother be written off, as his children have nothing else to fall back on except the small amount deposited in the Comptee Bank and the in-surance money. I regret the delay.

I have the honor to be yours most ob^d serv^t

Signed/ C. Soondara Row.
