GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

Furlough and Leave—Privilege.

Read the following paper:—

No. 547. From Major A. D. ANDERSON, Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Inspector-General of Military Works; dated Fort William, the 16th November 1888, No. 2422-A.

Furlough and Leave—Privilege.

I am desired to acknowledge the receipt of your communication No. 3845-A of the 27th September 1888, forwarding a letter from Captain W. G. Bowyer, R.E., asking to be allowed to date his privilege leave, which he intends taking before joining the Chatham course of 1889, from such date as would admit of his reporting himself for duty at the same time as the other officers who will join the course.

2. In reply, I am to say that the Government of India have decided that all the officers who will join the next year's course of instruction at Chatham, whether from furlough or privilege leave or proceeding by troopship, must report themselves for duty at Chatham three clear days before the course commences, viz., on the 28th March 1889, and that all officers in India who intend to avail themselves of privilege leave before the commencement of the course must make their arrangements accordingly.

No. 2422-A.

Copy forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Military Department.
