28TH NOVEMBER 1888, No. 2463, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From E. NORTON, Esq., Coroner of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 17th November 1888, No. 28.

With reference to the notice of abolition of my office, I have the honor to address the Government as to the consequences which that abolition will entail upon my subordinates.

2. Of these, my own interpreter, W. Parthasaradi Chetti, aged 39 years old, has a record of 20½ years' service, the whole of which has been spent in this department. He has passed the General Test, Translation Tests (Lower and Higher grades) including visà voce, and has gone up this year for the Judicial Tests (Civil and Criminal lower grades) and précis-writing (Higher grade), and on the death of the former interpreter in August 1886, he succeeded him and has since been drawing Rs. 120 (Rs. 70 + Rs. 50 carriage allowance) a month.

3. My clerk, C. Thumbuswami Pillai, 33 years old, has a record of 9½ years' service. He was originally in the Quartermaster-General's Department and was transferred to mine on his own application in August 1886. He has passed the General Test, Matriculation, Précis-writing (Higher grade), Translation Test (Lower grade) and Judicial Test (Criminal Lower grade), and has gone up this year for Judicial Test (Civil Lower grade) and is now drawing Rs. 25 a month.

4. Both are capable and honest officials, and upon the shoulders of such, still able to do good work in the public service, the sudden arrest of their careers and deprivation of incomes must necessarily have a most disastrous effect. It is more than difficult to secure employment in private firms, and I would very earnestly entreat the Government to take their position into consideration, and by utilizing their services in some other departments, secure to each that assurance of competency to which each is entitled.

ORDER—dated 28th November 1888, No. 2463, Judicial.

The names of the two clerks mentioned by the Coroner, viz:—

W. Parthasaradi Chetti,
C. Thumbuswami Pillai,

will be brought to the notice of other departments of the Secretariat and of heads of departments with a view to suitable appointments being, if possible, found for them.
