for the use of the Police Assistant Superintendent and his lascars, I am directed to invite attention to para 2 of my letter No. 3501 W dated 3rd November 1888, and to request that sanction may be accorded to the free occupation of such buildings generally.

2. Similar structures are provided for the accommoda= =tion of Superintendents and lascars in connection with all the Irrigation systems in this Presidency, and it is not considered desirable that ~~some~~ men of the above classes, who are compelled to occupy Govern= =ment buildings in the interests of the service, should be called upon to pay payment for them.

3. Para 2 of the Proceedings of this Government No. 2527 W dated 23rd September 1887 directed that all such buildings should be brought on the divisional registers, so that they are liable to regular check by the Audit department.
