READ—the following paper:—

Endorsement of the Public Works Department, No. 4426 C., dated 12th November 1888.

ABSTRACT.—Transferring letter from the Government of India, Public Works Department, No. 2876 G., dated 31st October 1888, regarding the interpretation of a rule in the Civil Travelling Allowance Code.

ORDER—dated 8th December 1888, No. 929, Financial.

G.Os., dated 3rd September 1887, No. 966, and 21st October 1887, No. 1123, Financial, are cancelled.

2. Daily allowance may be converted into mileage under section 22 (b), Civil Travelling Allowance Code, even though an officer does not spend a night away from head-quarters.

3. It is necessary, however, that controlling officers shall carefully check any tendency to abuse the permission to convert, and under section 72 (3), the Government resolve to direct, as a subsidiary instruction to such officers, that ordinarily the officer claiming the conversion shall be required to show that the actual expenses incurred by him exceeded his daily allowance. The sanction of Government to the conversion must be applied for in any case in which this cannot be shown.
