To W.

In Madras P.W. Code para 964, which corresponds with the Govt. of India P.W. Code Chapter VII, para 67, it is laid down that repair estimates will provide for, inter alia, all watchmen sanctioned by competent authority, for the care of vacant buildings: but what the competent authority may be is nowhere stated in the Code.

2. I therefore beg that Govt. will be pleased to define the term "competent authority" in this connection.

The competent authority in this case will be understood to be the Superintending Engineer. The requisite Standing Order to the Code rules framed accordingly
