FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ the following paper:—

From H. F. CLOGSTOUN, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 11th February 1888, No. 360.

222W/19-1-88
With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 1331, dated the 21st December 1887, Financial, the first half of which speaks only of Exception 1 to Section 32 of the Civil Travelling Allowance Code, but the second half of which uses the words "on all occasions," I have the honor to point out that ministerial officers exchange daily allowance for mileage under Section 3 itself, as well as under the exception quoted, and to request, therefore, that I may be informed if it is the intention of Government that that section also should be considered not applicable to menial servants.

ORDER—dated 27th February 1888, No. 188 Financial.

It is not the wish of Government that Section 32 of the Civil Travelling Allowance Code should be considered entirely inapplicable to menial servants.

2. The following rule will be issued in supersession of that contained in G.O., No. 1331, 21st December 1887:—

"Menial servants, including peons, moochie and attenders, shall on no occasion, from the 1st April next, be permitted to exchange daily allowance for mileage by road."

3. Exchange of daily allowance for the allowances admissible under Chapters X and XI of the Code or, for mileage under Chapter XII, when the journey is by boat, will be permitted as formerly.

4. The instruction contained in the third paragraph of G.O., No. 1331, 21st December 1887, will, with reference to the present order, be applicable to the case of menial as well as other ministerial servant.
