Note This would be a bad precedent. If men on the permanent Establishment have a little extra work occasionally, they should not look for special payment. They get their regular promotion when it falls due - and specially good men may even get exceptional promotion on the occurrence of vacancies.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1192

To W.

In accordance with the orders of Government communicated with G.O.No. 3412 W.dated 15th. December 1887, the services of R.A. Thambi Pillai were dispensed with from 17th. December 1887. He was placed under suspension under Code para 684 from 1st. August 1887 to 16th. December 1887 and was allowed subsistence allowance of one-fourth of his salary, i. e. Rs. 12-8-0 per mensem.

2. The suspension of the clerk rendered the appointment of a substitute on Rs. 20 per mensem necessary, but as the substitute appointed was quite new to the office, the work of record keeping and picking up references performed by Thambi Pillai had to be done conjointly by Mr. Collins, clerk V Class 1st. grade on Rs. 19 per mensem and
