Establishment.

READ—the following papers:—

Proceedings of the Government of Madras, Military Department, dated 3rd June 1887, No. 3241.

Read—the following extract of a military letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated 31st March 1887, No. 84.

Para. 2. With reference to the paragraphs of military despatches from the Government of Madras noted in the margin, I have to inform you that Indian service, so far as regards service for pension of officers of Royal Engineers who have elected for continuous service in India, will reckon, as in the case of other officers, from the dates of arrival in India, three years of British service being, however, also allowed to reckon as Indian service.

Proceedings of the Government of Madras, Military Department, dated 7th March 1888, No. 1627.

Read—the following letter from Major A. D. ANDERSON, Officiating Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Inspector-General of Military Works, dated Fort William, the 23rd February 1888, No. 461 A.

In continuation of Military Department letter, No. 1456 A., dated the 3rd October 1887, and with reference to the decisions quoted on the margin regarding the date of commencement of the Indian pension service of officers of the Royal Engineers who elect for continuous service in India, I am directed to explain that the intention is that these officers shall commence to reckon such service from the date of their first arrival in India, but that thereafter all periods during which they may receive pay from Indian revenues shall so reckon.

2. As this intention is, however, not clearly indicated in decision No. 10 in the memorandum forwarded with Military Department letter, No. 990 A.S. (Appointments of Royal Engineers), dated the 13th August 1886, I am to say that the Government of India are prepared to consider the application of any officer of Royal Engineers, who has already elected for continuous Indian service, and who may desire to cancel the same, provided such application is made before the 1st June 1888, and can certify that, but for the ruling which it is now proposed to correct, he would not have elected for continuous service in India.
