2 In the remarks against "Hospital Assistants" in Code Appendix C - it is shown that when quarters are not available hutting money is admissible under the Madras Army Regulations.
But it will be seen from the copy of G. O. No 6971 dated 11 November 1887. ^{* not con?} which is one of the Enclosures that the payment either of hutting money - or compensation in lieu of quarters, is not approved by the Government of India. In my No 3854 to the Executive Engineer's information how such claims have been hitherto dealt with, was called for.

2 In reply and with reference to the special case of the Hospital Assistants attached to the Nasirabad station hospital, I am to say that the Government of India regret to be unable to modify the rules in force and to grant them subordinates compensation to which they are not at present entitled; but are of opinion that arrangements should be made by the Public Works Department to hire suitable accommo-
