READ—the following letter from G. H. D. WALKER, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Calcutta, 16th March 1888, No. 642 G.:—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 564 W., dated 17th ultimo, representing the hardship entailed on officers of the Public Works Department in the Madras Presidency by the rulings contained in the letters noted on the margin, and urging that sub. pro tem. promotions may be permitted in the room of all officers of the Madras list, whose pay is not chargeable against the Madras budget, in consequence of their absence on deputation or other duty.

2. In reply, I am directed to state that the question was fully considered at the time, and that the decision cannot be reconsidered. The officers on the Madras list lent to the Military Works Department or the Accounts Branch are surplus officers transferred for a time to another list, and the officers who remain suffer no real hardship in receiving the same pay as they would get if the officers lent had remained doing work on the Madras list.

3. Under Public Works Code, chapter I, paragraph 69 A, officiating promotions are admissible in the room of officers on field service.
