INDIA ARMY CIRCULAR.

Dated 31st March 1888.

Furlough and Leave Rules applicable to officers of the Royal Engineers serving in India.

Clause 41.—In view to remove any misapprehension as to the furlough and leave rules applicable to officers of Royal Engineers serving in India, it is notified that—

- (a) Officers belonging to the late Indian cadres, and non-continuous service officers of the Imperial list who were posted to the Indian establishment on or before the 11th March 1886, come under the furlough regulations of 1863, if in permanent staff or departmental employ, or if belonging to the fixed establishment of the corps of sappers and miners; but if not on the fixed establishment of the sappers and miners or in permanent staff or departmental employ, they come under the leave rules applicable to officers of the British Army in India.
- (b) Non-continuous service officers of the Imperial list, who were posted to the Indian establishment after the 11th March 1886, come under the leave rules applicable to officers of the British Army in India, however they may be employed.
- (c) Continuous service officers of the Imperial list come under the leave rules for the staff corps, if in military employ, but under the civil leave rules, if in civil employ.
