GOVT. OF MADRAS.

1889.

P. W. DEPT.

EXAMINER, P. W. ACCOUNTS.

Madras, 17th April 1889.

Office Note No. 516

To

W.

In continuation of my office note No. 25 dated 11th. January 1889, I shall feel obliged if you can obtain the approval of Government to the use -- experimentally at any rate of the accompanying form of travelling allowance disallowance list, with printed standing remarks for all ordinary occasions, which would be referred to by entry of the corresponding numbers in column 4. When any remark has to be made which is not thus provided it will of course be entered in full in column 4.

2. The advantages of such forms are that

(a) it saves writing, both original and copying: I suppose that to take an instance, remark No. 4 is written by hand, at rather greater length than printed in the form, at least two hundred times every month:

KEEP WITH

Genl. No.

dated

2,000-9-10-88.

(b) it saves thinking, the printed remarks being a complete compendium of the rule on points ordinarily requiring notice.

(c) it ensures remarks being intelligible.

(d) it ensures correct and complete quotation of all necessary code references, without the trouble of turning them up.

(e) it does away with the necessity of verifying references, and generally facilitates check by those on whom devolves the review of the original audit :

(f) it facilitates check and comparison of copies with originals by greatly reducing the matter to be compared:

(g) it affords a means of mechanically sifting out items which do not require the personal attention of the Examiner, and enables him to give all the more to those which do require it.

3. Every one of these advantages excepting (c) means a direct saving of time in the audit of travelling allowance bills, and the cumulative effect will I think be very considerable; much of the present delay being due to chronic condition of slight arrears which would have been very greatly reduced by even a small saving of time in the disposal of each individual bill.

1148 2 H 4
4. It will of course be understood that I am asking approval only to the principle of the proposal, i.e. to the principle of printed standing remarks, not to the details or wording of those remarks; and if the principle is approved of, I shall add to and modify the standing remarks according to the indications of experience, and extend the system to salary and contingent bill disallowances also.

To His Excellency
 The Right Hon'ble Robert Bourke
 Baron Connemara G. C. I. & Governor of Madras.

- 1 The petition of Alfred Joyce Esq. Engineer respectfully sheweth.
- 2 That your petitioner passed out of the Royal Indian Civil Engineering College in 1874.
- 3 That your petitioner was then appointed by the Secretary of State an Asst. Engineer and posted to the N. W. P. Irrigation Department.
- 4 That in July 1880 your petitioner was transferred to the Bengal Irrigation Department very much against his wish and very considerably to his detriment.
- 5 That in 1883 a circular purporting to be issued by the Government of Madras went round the Province of Bengal asking for volunteers for the Madras Presidency.
- 6 That your petitioner replied to that circular expressing his willingness to be transferred to the Presidency of Madras if he might hold the position on the List of Madras

exactly according to his seniority when passing out from the Royal Indian Civil Engineering College. 1148 b

That your petitioner was transferred to the Presidency of Madras in April 1883.

That your petitioner found that men very considerably his junior as the pass list of the Royal Indian Civil Engineering College will show were allowed and are yet allowed to supersede him.

That your petitioner addressed the Secretary to Government in the Public Works Department in November 1885 and very humbly remonstrated.

That the Secretary to Government in the Public Works Department replied that your petitioner's claims would be considered as opportunity occurred.

That your petitioner was again superseded in October 1888 as he discovered.

That your petitioner again humbly remonstrated.

That your petitioner was informed that his position in the Madras List would be at the tail of his year instead of at the top which place he won in competition for passing out of the Royal Indian Civil Engineering College.

That this decision if final places no less than five officers over your petitioner's head.

That your petitioner would wish to point out that if he has committed any fault departmentally he has already been punished very heavily for it through no less than 14 years of service.

That your petitioner has already lost by supercession about 7000 Rs.

That this loss of places very seriously affects your petitioner's prospects not only now but in all probability to a very much greater extent in the future.

That your petitioner's case may be carefully considered and if possible favourably dealt with.

That your petitioner may be restored to his original place in the Department according to the position he won for himself in the final Examination of 1874.

And your petitioner will ever pray
Alfred Joyce.

The terms stated in the letter from India have been quoted, and the only ones of which we have any knowledge and they do not embrace any stipulation for particular place. Letter from A. Joyce, Esq., Ex. Engr.
N^o 1 Party S. R. Scheme } (" 14 C. E. of April 8. ")

Endorsement by the C. Engr. Esq. (" 680 2 of April 9. ")

It is observed that Mr. Joyce joined the N. W.
Provinces on the 1st October 1874 at the same time as Messrs Monckton, Cobs, Carnwell and Vernon, all of whom were juniors to him
according to College standing.
2. On the 12th July 1880, he was transferred from the N. W.
Provinces to Bengal, Irrigation, not at his own request.

At that date, he was an Assistant Engineer 2^d grade, while the officers mentioned above had all been promoted to Assistant Engineer 1st grade. He had thus been superseeded in his own Province for reasons of which the Madras Govt are not aware. His appeal to the Bengal Government in regard to his supersession seems to have been fruitless. On joining the Madras list in April 1883 he was accordingly placed in his proper relative position according to the rank which he then held - and has since received promotion in his turn. Mr Joyce's promotion from Assistant Engineer 2nd grade seems to have been designedly retarded by the Govt of the N.W. Provinces, and it was never intended that he should gain by his transfer to Madras a great and undesired advantage.

1148 17
over officers of this Govt who had won their — promotion by good service in ordinary course. All that the Govt of India stipulated for on his transfer to this Presidency was that he should be promoted according to his deserts with due regard to the claims of other Cooper's Hill Engineers of his own standing on the Madras List. This condition has been substantially carried out, and N.E. the Governor in Council is accordingly
constrained to reject
Mr Joyce's appeal to be allowed to supersede officers originally on the

Madras List who now take rank above him
owing to priority of promotion in regular course.
