OFFICE NOTE No. 840

To

W.

With reference to G. O. No. 786 W. dated the 14th March 1887, I beg to point out that the extension of furlough for 6 months apparently granted to Captain Rawson R. E. is inadmissible. All that should have been done was to allow Captain C. C. Rawson R. E. to spend 6 months at the school of Military Engineering in addition to his furlough but this time will not be furlough or on furlough pay; it will be service on British pay, vide, Rule VII. of the Royal Warrant dated 20th February 1886.

2. As far as I can see, there is nothing in the Rule to prevent the Government allowing Captain Rawson R. E. to spend another six months at the School of Military Engineering to study " Construction " in addition to the 6 months for "promotion", if they desire to do so.

3. The restriction in Rule VII of the Regulations for the Instruction at Chatham of Officers of Royal Engineers on furlough from India apparently applies only to the duration of the course in the subjects enumerated in Rule V. under "Special Instruction". If it were meant to apply to the combined duration of courses under "Study for Promotion" and "Special Instruction" it would I think have been placed under "General Regulations".

Your 840. dy 22 March 1887

Under Rule XIII of the "Regulations all officers on furlough on private affairs may reckon the time passed at Chatham either as part of their furlough or as in addition to their furlough, and in the latter case, under rule XIV, they will receive English pay and allowances &c. This is Capt. Rawson's case as he applied for permission to remain in addition to his leave on private affairs

+ Referred to in the Secy of State's despatch recorded with G.O. No. 902. W. dy 2 April/84

Rule VII of the Royal warrant of 20 Feby/86 does not appear to have been correctly read by C as it distinctly lays down that the Secy. of State will prescribe the conditions & those above quoted are the latest.

Read—the following letter from Captain C. C. RAWSON, R.E., Executive Engineer, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, Madras, dated 8, Hollam Road, Clevedon, Somersetshire, 5th February 1887, No. 4:—

With reference to "Regulations for the instruction of officers on furlough at Chatham," dated India Office, May 1883, circulated with memorandum, No. 955 C., dated 6th May 1884, paragraphs XI and XII—

2. I have the honor to request that the Government of Madras will allow me, as a special favor, to remain in England for twelve months in addition to my furlough of two years; making a total absence from India of three years.

3. I wish to spend six months at Chatham studying for promotion and six months under special instruction "in construction."

4. In the event of Government declining to allow me to remain absent for twelve months in addition to my two years' furlough, I request that I may be allowed to remain six months in addition to the two years, being the time to be spent at Chatham in studying for promotion, which is compulsory.

Order—dated 14th March 1887, No. 786 W., Public Works.

Under existing rules an extension of furlough for six months only can be sanctioned for the purpose of enabling an officer to study at Chatham, unless the officer is desirous of going through a complete course of submarine mining, and has exhibited special aptitude for that subject, when an extension of three months may be granted.

2. Captain Rawson will be informed, in reply to his letter dated 5th February 1887, that the Government of Madras have no objection to his furlough being extended for six months to enable him to study for promotion at the School of Military Engineering, Chatham.

3. A copy of these proceedings will be forwarded for the information of the Secretary of State for India.

Read—the following papers:—

From Captain C. C. RAWSON, R.E., to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, Madras, dated Brompton Barracks, Chatham, 13th June 1887.

With reference to G.O., No. 786 W., dated 14th March 1887, I have the honor to request that the part of the order on my application declining to grant me six months' leave for special instruction may be reconsidered with reference to rules V, VI, VII of the "Regulations for the Instruction of Officers on Furlough at Chatham," dated India Office, May 1883, and circulated with memorandum, No. 955 C., dated 6th May 1884.

2. Under the interpretation of these rules given in the Government order, an officer obtaining leave to study for promotion could not also get leave for special instruction in the subjects enumerated in rule V; this is clearly not the intention of the Secretary of State, as six months is allowed for study for promotion by rule III and a further period of six months for special instruction under rule VII.

3. I respectfully beg therefore that the order may be reconsidered, and that I may be allowed to remain at Chatham for twelve months in addition to my two years' furlough, instead of only six months, as granted.

Office note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated 20th July 1887, No. 364.

Order—dated 18th August 1887, No. 2209 W., Public Works.

It is not clearly understood how long an officer may remain at Chatham for study, but if the rules permit, the Government of Madras have no objection to Captain Rawson being absent from India on duty for a period of six months in addition to the six months already allowed him.

To The Secretary to Government
Public Works Department Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith a copy of a letter from myself to the Brigade Major, School of Military Engineering, and a copy of the reply from the India Office -

2. You will see that I applied to remain at Chatham after the 11th April 1888 in order to complete the course of Sub Marine Mining - such time to count as part of my furlough -

3. From the reply of the India Office, it would appear that if I can obtain the sanction of the Govt. of Madras the Secy. of State is willing to give me this time in addition to my furlough. As I do not think that it can be intended that I should obtain leave from the Madras Govt. to study during my furlough -

4. I respectfully request that I may be permitted to remain at Chatham after the 11th April next to complete the course of Submarine Mining

Mining, which ends about Oct. 15th and that I be allowed this time in addition to my furlough, if this can be done without my forfeiting my appointment in the Public Works Dept. by being absent from India for more than three years.

If I cannot remain in England for more than three years without losing my appointment in the Public Works Department. I request that I may be permitted to remain at Chatham after the 11th April to complete the Submarine Mining Course as a part of my furlough. 5

I particularly wish to complete the whole course of Submarine Mining as an incomplete course of instruction will be of little or no use to me. 6.
