11TH APRIL 1889, No. 231, FINANCIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

Resolution of the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, dated Calcutta, 27th March 1889, No. 1560.

Read—

Despatch from the Secretary of State for India, to the Government of India, dated 6th December 1888, No. 311 (Financial).

I forward, for your information, a copy of correspondence with Captain
P. E. Henderson, Bengal Staff Corps, Assistant Commissioner in Assam, relative to the grant to him, as a special case, of an advance of £63, to be recovered from him in India, which will be treated as a final charge in this country.

2. Although the Military Furlough Rules sanction advances on return to duty, officers taking leave under the rules applicable to Covenanted Civil Servants, who are not entitled to such a concession, have no claim to combine the advantages of Civil and Military Rules, and should, accordingly, not be allowed any advance on returning to India.

3. I request, therefore, that you will issue such orders as may be necessary to warn Military officers taking leave under Civil Rules that they will not be allowed, on return to duty, to receive the special advances granted to those on leave under the Military Regulations.

Order—

Ordered that a copy of this despatch, and of its enclosures, be forwarded to the several Local Governments and Administrations for the issue of the necessary instructions in the case. The orders have been embodied in the new Civil Service Regulations in Appendix No. 11, Rule XX, footnote.

(Signed) L. P. SHIRRES, Offg. Under-Secy. to the Govt. of India.

ENCLOSURES.

From Captain P. E. HENDERSON, B.S.C., Assistant Commissioner in Assam (on furlough), to the Secretary of State for India, dated 3rd November 1888.

I have the honor to submit this my application for an advance of £63 passage money (the exact fare by P. and O.) to enable me to defray the expenses of my journey to India when I have permission to return to duty. I ask for this advance as a special case. I am an officer of the Bengal Staff under the Furlough Rules of 1868. As a Military officer, I would have had no difficulty in getting the usual advance of £100 for passage money in return. But as I am a Military officer in civil employ and happen to have come home under a special provision of the Civil Leave Code on urgent private affairs which brooked no delay, I am considered as being under the same category as Covenanted Civilians to whom advances are not usually given. I would, however, state that, while a Covenanted Civilian of the lowest grade draws about £500 a year when on furlough on special leave, I only draw about the same or rather less than I would do were I in military employ and on leave, my pay being a trifle over £23 a month and the minimum pay of a Military officer, Bengal Staff Corps, who has had 15 years' service (I had 17) is when on furlough £25 per month, and the latter is always able to get an advance of £100 passage money in return.

I trust that, in consideration of the extreme hardness of my case as a married man and compared with the advantages enjoyed by other military men or by Covenanted Civilians, I may be granted the indulgence of the small grant of money I here ask for the fare by steamer to India to enable me to rejoin as I have absolutely not the means to pay my passage out to rejoin my appointments. Trusting my case will receive early attention as I must leave in three weeks.

From Captain P. E. HENDERSON, B.S.C., Assistant Commissioner in Assam (on furlough), to the Secretary of State for India, dated 4th November 1888.

In continuation of my application for a grant of passage money, as a special case, to enable me to rejoin my appointment in India, I have the honor further to add that I have endeavoured by every means in my power to induce my agents, Messrs. Grindlay, to assist me by advancing the passage money, but without avail, so that I am left without any means of paying my passage out to India by any possibility.

From J. A. GODLEY, Esq., Under-Secy. of State for India, to Capt. P. E. HENDERSON, R.E., 55, Parliament Street, S.W., dated 14th November 1888.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letters of the 3rd and 4th instant, and to acquaint you, in reply, that the Secretary of State for India in Council has sanctioned an advance being made to you of the sum of £63 as a special case.

No. 163 F, dated 17th Jan. 1889.

Endorsed by the Military Department.

Copy of the foregoing forwarded to the Department of Finance and Commerce for needful action.
