By order,

G. M. Walker

Under-Secretary.

Dated 11th March, 1889.

From—The Superintendent, Government Printing, India,

To—The Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department.

The contract between Mr. Bruce Ellis and the Government of India for printing and supplying Standard Forms kept in stock, having been assigned over to Messrs. G. W. Allen & Co. from the 1st February last, it is requested that all Indents for such Forms be in future forwarded to Messrs. G. W. Allen & Co., Caledonian Printing Works, Howrah, and not to the undersigned.

A list is appended, showing the dates on which Indents for Forms should reach the Contractors' Office. These dates should be strictly adhered to, and supplementary requisitions should only be forwarded in special cases, with an explanation of the necessity for sending them.
