26TH APRIL 1889, No. 400, PENSION.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., dated 2nd March 1889, No. 241, Pension.

Read—the following letter from T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 4th February 1889, No. I.A.E.—340:—

I have the honor to forward, herewith, a copy of letter No. 1323, dated 12th December 1888, from the Inspector of Vaccination and Deputy Sanitary Commissioner, Madras, in which he states that the services of certain vaccinators could not be verified as no copies of the pay abstracts of the establishment of the Vaccine department, Ganjam Hill tracts, were kept by the Agent to the Governor in Ganjam. I beg to observe that the omission to keep copies of pay abstracts throws additional and unnecessary work upon this office in respect to verification of services.

ENCLOSURE.

From Surgeon D. F. DYMOTT, M.B., Inspector of Vaccination and Deputy Sanitary Commissioner, to the Accountant-General, dated Madras, 12th December 1888, No. 1323.

With reference to G.O., dated 16th October 1888, No. 983, Public, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to cause the services, as shown in the enclosed statements, of the individuals noted in the margin, while they were employed in the Vaccine department, Ganjam Hill tracts, to be verified by reference to the pay abstracts from that district on record in your office.

K. Vardarajulu Naidu.
K. Surianarayana Naidu.

2. I enclose copy of a letter from the Agent to the Governor in Ganjam stating that the pay abstracts were sent to your office and no copies kept there.

Order—dated 2nd March 1889, No. 241, Pension.

The Accountant-General should decline to verify service books sent to him in circumstances similar to those detailed in the above papers. If in any case the preliminary verification required by G.O., dated 29th June 1888, No. 717, Pension, cannot be made in the administrative offices concerned, the matter must be postponed until retirement and the submission of application for pension.

2. The Government desire to know whether the practice of retaining no copies of pay abstracts prevails at all widely. The Accountant-General should report on this point.

3. The Collector of Ganjam will explain why he did not keep copies of the particular pay abstracts referred to in these papers.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) C. A. GALTON,
Secretary to Government.

To the Accountant-General.
" Collector of Ganjam.

From T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 28th March 1889, No. I.A.E.—446:—

With reference to paragraph 2 of the Proceedings of Government, No. 241, dated 2nd instant, I have the honor to state that I have no data to show whether the practice of retaining no copies of pay abstracts prevails at all widely, beyond the fact that, during the last seven months, about 300 cases have been submitted to this office for verification by 50 officers, on the plea that the necessary records were not available in their own offices.

ORDER—dated 26th April 1889, No. 400, Pension.

Communicated to all Heads of Departments who will issue instructions directing the retention of pay abstracts.
