To

The Under Secy. of State for India, India Office.

Sir,

With reference to letter M. 9579 of the 2nd inst. from the Asst. Military Secretary, I have the honor to state that I have not yet made up my mind as to whether I shall return to India after my furlough or not.

I do not care to return to serve in the public or Military Works Departments, and am afraid that no purely military app't. will be given to me.

Cotacamund, the 6th June 1889.

Read the following extract from a Military Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, No. 26, dated 2nd May 1889, para. 1.

M 2765.

Major A. R. F. Dorward, D.S.O., R.E., whose furlough on private affairs has lately been extended up to the full period of two years, spent 118 days under instruction at the School of Military Engineering, from 1st July 1888 to 28th August 1888 inclusive, and from 14th November 1888 to 11th January 1889 inclusive. From the accompanying copy of his letter, dated 4th October 1888, and of the reply, dated 1st November 1888, M 9727, it will be seen that permission for three months of the period spent at Chatham to be reckoned as in addition to his furlough can be granted only contingently upon his returning to duty in India.

[With reference to your Public Works Despatch No. 13/2387 W., dated 6th August 1888, and your Public Works Secretary's Letter No. 120 W.,
