1209 A - A warrant medical officer passing through Madras on transfer or otherwise, and travelling at the public expense, is not entitled to compensations, but if he be casually detained at Madras on temporary duty for a period not exceeding two months, he will be allowed compensations in lieu of free quarters on a certificate by the barrack master that no public quarters were available for the period for which compensations is claimed, and on a further certificate by the Pay Examiner (or in the case of a Medical Warrant Officer on civil duty by the Accountant General, Madras) that the Medical Warrant Officer has not drawn and will not draw any other allowances, or receive camp or equipage for the period in question.

2 H 10

If detained on duty under the above circumstances for a period exceeding 2 months, the rule in force regarding progress of quarters will apply.
1209 B - When a warrant Medical Officer under orders for transfer is granted leave, he is not entitled to quarters or compensation during such leave.
