OFFICE NOTE No. 804.

To

W.

The wording of the rule in Code para 548 (as introduced by standing order No.44I of 6th.August 1888) seems to be somewhat misleading, and has given rise to a claim by a supervisor in the Tanjore Division for the travelling allowances of an Asstt. Engineer on the ground of his having relieved an officer of that rank, (who proceeded on privilege leave) of the charge of a sub-division.

2. The claim was of course inadmissible, as the supervisor was not appointed to officiate in a higher rank but to make the meaning of the rule clearer and prevent future misconception on the point, please obtain the approval of Government to the substitution of the words "to officiate in a higher rank in the place of an officer", for the words, " to officiate
