29TH MAY 1889, No. 462, PUBLIC.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From A. REA, Esq., M.R.A.S., First Assistant, Archæological Survey, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 9th May 1889, No. 212.

I have the honor to forward, in original, a list of ancient mounds in the Kistna district, which Mr. Arundel has kindly had prepared.

2. Although the whole of these probably do not cover ancient remains, yet, from what I have seen, in such parts of the district as I have visited, I have no doubt but that a very large proportion of them do contain buildings or other objects of interest. The list, large as it is, probably does not exhaust the series. As an instance, I may notice three Buddhist sites near Amarávati. They are on hills, at Odlamanu, Vaikuntapuram and Pedda Maddur in the Guntúr taluk, and were discovered during my past tour. The latter is of considerable importance, as it contains a Buddhist stupa with its circular wall complete, and other remains very probably one of those sites mentioned by the Chinese pilgrim Hiouen Tsang, the supposed locality of which has hitherto led to some controversy among archæologists.

3. The list shows the large field there is for archæological research of the most interesting and important nature in this district alone, as many, if not all of them, most probably cover Buddhist or other remains of the early centuries of the Christian era.

4. Besides being of great use to this department, as showing where discoveries are likely to be made, it would serve a purpose no less important if orders were issued to prevent the removal of bricks or other objects from the mounds herein tabulated. They usually serve as convenient quarries for the neighbouring villages, and, if this destructive practice were stopped, we may expect in our future researches to find some of the buildings at least in a fairly complete condition. Such a list has long been wanted, as this class of remains has been almost entirely overlooked in the published Lists of Antiquities; and now that it has been made, there should be no difficulty in preventing any digging, except by officers of the Archæological department, and I would request that Government might be pleased to sanction its being done.
