Your office letter of

I have explained the delay of this Indent in your office from the 5th to the

which was replied to on

R.S.
No 655 of 15th May 1889.

To W.

3 There was no delay in disposing of the indent referred to except such as is inseparable from the routine procedure of a large office; but unfortunately as shown in the statement below holidays have persistently interfered at every stage in the progress of the indent to aggravate the usual routine delays.

History of the case.

April 5th. Received Indent

.. 6th. Holiday in lieu of last Saturday of March (30th.) when the office was kept open being the last working day of the official year.

.. 7th. Sunday

.. 8th. Sent to the branch concerned for disposal.

.. 9th. A draft office note No. 467 was put up for Examiner's approval.

.. 10th. Draft office note passed by the Examiner.

.. 11th. Fair copy of office note No. 467 enquiring whether funds would be provided for was issued.

.. 12th. to 18th. Reply to above office note was awaited from the Secretary to Government P.W.D.

.. 20th. Reply received to the above office note (during Easter Holidays).

.. 21st. to 23rd. Easter Holidays.

.. 24th. Made over to the branch concerned for disposal.

Four days.

1804 April 25th. & 26th. Draft certificate was put up and passed by the Examiner.

.. 27th. Holiday (Last Saturday)

.. 28th. Sunday.

.. 29th. & 30th. Certificate fair copied and despatched to the Secretary.

2. I beg to add that it might be worth while to consider whether the Government of India might ^{not} be asked to modify the rule contained in P.W. Code Appendix G, para 16, page 99 which requires the certificate of the Examiner who can only certify at second hand. It would seem more reasonable, and would often obviate a fortnights delay if the Examiner were simply required to point out whether funds have or have not been provided, and if provided where and for what year, leaving it to the Secretariat (who can at any time stultify any certificate given by the Examiner) to give the assurance required by the Government of India.

 this office on the afternoon of 12th April 1889. It was registered and sent to the Budget Section

 The necessary papers were put up and draft reply was submitted on Monday the 15th April 1889. The paper was initialled and returned by D.W.
 on the 16th and it was numbered and despatched to C

D.W.

C gives the dates as 12th to 19th. The reply was sent from here on the 17th, but 18th was the first day of the holidays and perhaps there was no one in C's office to receive the reply. There does not seem to have been any delay in this office.

The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department

Sir, the 20th June 1889.

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 1467 W.
dated the 3rd June 1889, submitting for consideration a proposal made by the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, Madras, that the Certificates which are attached to indents are England, to the effect that the necessary funds have been provided to meet the outlay to be incurred, should for reasons explained, be given in future by the Secretary to the Local Government. -

2. In reply, I am to say that the Government of India is of opinion that it would not be advisable to alter the existing system. The Examiner of Accounts is the officer who is responsible that financial regularity is observed, 1457.87
and is therefore the proper person to give the certificate in question.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Yours most obedt. Servt.,

N. B. Muddley.
