SIR,

In reply to your N. 265 dated 17th June 1889, A.S.

I have the honor to state that the grounds on which I applied for exemption from the 25 years' rule on behalf of Rathanasawmy Iyer are:—

- (1) That he has served Government from 11th February 1884 to the present date with only 2 breaks from March 1st to 9th, and 1 September 7th to 28th 1887.
- (2) That at the commencement of this service he was only 23 years & 6 months old.
- (3) That, although very well qualified, ^{qualified?} no opportunity occurred for appointing him to a permanent post until 18th May 1888, when he was 27 years and 9 months old.

(4) That he has passed the F. A. Examination of the Madras University and is therefore probably better educated than $\frac{9}{10}$ of Public Works Department clerks.

(5) That since his appointment to be clerk of N. 2 Subdivision in this Division, he has brought that office, formerly in a very indifferent state, into excellent order.

2. I think the grounds for his exemption are strong, & I beg that you will be good enough to forward the application to Government.

I have the honor to be

Sir

your most obedient servant

2. The Clerk was appointed to a permanent vacancy on the 18th May 1888, on the presumption that he was at that time less than 25 years of age.
