Madras, 24th July

OFFICE NOTE No. 1044.

To

W.

Under P.W.D. Code para 149, every accountant on first appointment, — which is ordinarily to the 5th. grade — must serve one year on probation before he can be appointed permanently, and, in the absence of any provision to the contrary, it has always been the practice to require the full period of probation, on first appointment in a permanent vacancy, even from those who have served — possibly for two or three years — as temporary accountants.

2. I think this is unnecessary & very hard upon such temporary accountants and I therefore solicit sanction of Government to my treating temporary service as counting towards the prescribed period of probation for appointment to the 5th. grade, and to modification of code para 149 accordingly.

3. As the proposal affects only the 5th. grade of accountants, the matter is entirely within the discretion of the Government. Indeed I am not at all sure that I should not be justified in exercising my own discretion in the matter.

The period of probation is obviously prescribed to test the qualifications of a newly appointed ac-
- countant, and there is therefore no objection to tem-
- porary service being re- garded as probationary service - Code para 149
will be satisfied ac-
- cordingly.
